

A Student performance analysis story

COLUMN CHART

- math score is unusually low when parental level of education is high school.
- gender male has the highest maths score at 417.7, out of which parental level of education master's degree contributed the most at 74.83.

math score by parental level of education colored by parental level of education

AREA CHART

- completed exceeds none in maths score by 5.618.
- test preparation course completed has the highest average maths score due to gender male.

PIE CHART

- writing score is unusually high when prental level of education is matser's degree.
- bachelor's degree has a higher writing score from gender female than master's degree.

LINE CHART

- reading score is most unusual when race/ethnicity is group E and group A.
- gender female has the highest reading score at 361.9, out of which race/ethnicity group E contributed the most at 75.84.

